LOVE OF A WOMAN.

It Is Beautifully Portrayed In This Story.

HER LOVER SLAIN BY SPANIARDS

She Swears to Avenge Him and Forms a Band of Amazons and Has Put Many of the Enemy to the Machete—Details of Her Latest Attack and Its Successful Results.

KEY WEST, Oct. 12.—Advice from Remedios told of the gallant deeds of a band of amazons headed by Senorita Martini Hernandez Perez. They are mounted and have been in the vicinity of Vuoltas for some time. Last Saturday Martini was informed that a careless watch was being kept by the Spanish garrison, and she decided to raid the place. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon Senorita Perez at the head of her band dashed upon the town. A picket of 12 Spanish soldiers at the gate were put to the machete almost before they knew an enemy was upon them.

The amazons then rode through the streets of the place, cutting down other Spanish soldiers who were lounging in front of a cafe. In the plaza 200 Spaniards were charged. The Spaniards fired a volley, which killed three amazons, and then fled to the barracks. The amazons pursued the fleeing soldiers, slashing them with the machete until they found refuge in the barracks. Eight of these were killed. The amazons then looted several stores and rode away singing the Cuban battle hymn.

Senorita Perez, leader of the amazons, has a romantic career. A year ago she was the fiancée of a captain in the patriot army. Her lover was captured by the Spaniards and cruelly put to death in Moro castle. A few months ago she organized a band of women, each one of whom had suffered some wrong at the hands of the Spaniards. Senorita Martini swore each member of the band never to spare a Spaniard. Since the amazons were organized they have been operating in the Remedios district and have inflicted great loss on Spanish residents, but the raid on Vuoltas was their first attack on Spanish soldiers.

DISHEARTENING TO SPANIARDS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—A special to the Times-Herald from Key West says: The sudden return of General Bernal to Havana from the northern coast of the province of Pinar del Rio, where he was sent by General Weyler to command the Spanish forces in the recent engagements against Antonio Maceo, has caused a profound sensation in Havana.

General Bernal has returned on sick leave and has asked to be sent to Spain, being thoroughly disheartened over the result of the campaign just inaugurated against the insurgents in Pinar del Rio. The general reports that Maceo has thoroughly reorganized his forces in the last few months and entrenched himself in the most commanding positions of the mountain fastness and that any attempt to dislodge him would be sure to result in disastrous failure and wholesale slaughter of the Spanish.

The folly of attempting to dislodge Maceo had been fully demonstrated, General Bernal said, in all the recent engagements when from commanding positions the Spanish officers were picked off by sharpshooters and the troops lacking leaders, became demoralized and were slaughtered like sheep.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES EXISTING.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Dr. Burgess, sanitary inspector of the marine hospital service at Havana, in a recent report, says that yellow fever continues to be epidemic there and he is informed that it is so in most of the places where the Spanish soldiers are found. During September there were 1,034 deaths in Havana from the disease.

Smallpox, instead of diminishing increases daily not only in Havana proper but in the suburbs. The doctor expresses the fear that it will be many months before this scourge is over.

He also points out the danger from yellow fever to vessels discharging cargoes at Tallapiedra wharf, Havana, because of its close proximity to an old and badly affected military hospital.

CAUGHT IN CANADA.

Pike County Ohio Treasurer in Jail at Vancouver.

WAVERLY, O., Oct. 12.—The chief of police here has received a telegram from Vancouver, B. C., stating that George W. Legg, the alleged absconding treasurer of Pike county, O., has been arrested there and was being held awaiting the pleasure of the officials of Waverly.

The telegram intimated that Legg had on his person several thousand dollars, and also directed that his family physician here, Dr. O. Andre, be notified. It is generally believed that Legg is sick and has confessed his identity in the hope of being returned to the care of his friends. Word was received that Legg will return without extradition papers.

Legg's term of office expired Sept. 7, but he left here Sept. 5 and nothing has been heard of him since until now. The special examining committee is still at work on the books in the county treasury, and so far they have discovered a deficiency of $16,000, and the amount increases as the examination progresses.

Legg was indicted by the grand jury and may be given a trial during the present term of the common pleas court, which is now in session. Sheriff Barnes is now making arrangements to go after the prisoner.

HAD TWO HUSBANDS.

Both in the Same House, but One Was an Embalmed Corpse.

CORDELE, Ga., Oct. 12.—The death in this city of Mrs. Joseph E. Bivins, wife of the president of the First National bank, recalls a sensation as ghastly as it was realistic. Mrs. Bivins was formerly an old maid in Atlanta, where she had some little property. Dr. Marvin, a specialist, from Omaha, came to Atlanta, wooed the matured maiden and made her his wife. He engaged in some real estate speculations, which made him worth nearly $1,000,000. He then moved to this city and erected a magnificent home, which was a dream in the eyes of the country people hereabout.

The happy couple lived in this new palace but a few weeks when the doctor sickened and died. Mrs. Marvin refused to be comforted. She forbade a funeral and telegraphed to New Orleans for an expert embalmer and an expert electrician. The result of their joint efforts was that Dr. Marvin was enabled to remain in his seat in the parlor and bow to his widow and then take his seat again. Ridiculous as this may seem, there was no arguing the widow out of its continuance. After about a year of this kind of enjoyment the widow concluded to give hand and heart to Mr. Joseph Bivins, who had become her business manager.

After her marriage she took him to her home, and then it was that she gained the remarkable distinction of having two husbands in the house at the same time, one alive and the other dead.

She had Mr. Bivins look upon the body of her dead husband in the parlor, and it was only after urgent solicitation on his part that she consented to the remains being sent to Macon and buried in Rose Hill cemetery.

Notwithstanding this very peculiar conduct Mrs. Bivins was a lady of great charity and many christian virtues.

THINKS HE IS A DOG.

Sequel to the Murder of an Innocent Man in Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Oct. 12.—Ben Osborne, the murderer of Theodore Shrader, is said to be a victim of hypnotist. Two weeks ago a hypnotist was in this city, and one of his most constant attendants on his sittings was Ben Osborne. Osborne consented to be placed under the spell, and was given the idea that he was a dog, and that some man had taken his soul. He would perform all kinds of queer antics characteristic of the canine.

The dog idea seems never to have gotten out of his mind. He seems still to imagine that someone holds his soul and that it is impossible for him to recover it.

One of the first freaks that he committed was to go to a young lady that lived on Markham street, and urge her to marry him. This she consented to do, not knowing his weakness. His dementia then began to grow worse.

His family were thoroughly alarmed about him, and were about to take steps for his care, but too late to avert the tragedy that followed.

Hundreds of the people of Atlanta attended these meetings, and were placed under the spell. Indeed, it became a Peachtree street fad, and no one was considered thoroughly in the swim unless he had investigated the sensation. Now that it has resulted in such a deplorable way, there are many others nervously examining themselves to see if there is anything wrong.

MURDER CAUSED A PANIC.

Political Meeting Broken Up by a Pistol User Near Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12.—During a campaign meeting at Chaplin, Nelson county, four miles from Bloomfield, Joe Prather shot William Keeling. The killing was the result of a grudge, which had its origin at a school election about a year ago. The murder was witnessed by the victim's bride.

Nearly 400 men attended a political joint debate between Hon. John W. Lewis and State Senator George Fulton. Judge Fulton spoke first. Keeling was an interested spectator. Just as Congressman Lewis was mounting the stand, Prather made his way through the crowd to where Keeling was standing. Before Keeling knew of his presence, Prather drew a pistol and fired two shots.

Keeling, in falling, turned his face toward his slayer. Standing over him, Prather fired another shot into his body. The first bullet from the rear entered Keeling's head near the base of the brain. Instantly the crowd was thrown into a state of panic, everybody trying to get out of the way of danger. Several horses were in the crowd, near where Keeling had been standing, and one of these became unmanageable, and rushing through the crowd of men, planted its hoof squarely in the face of the dead man, disfiguring it badly.

DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—There was a demonstration at the grave of the late Charles Stewart Parnell at Glasnevin yesterday, the occasion being the anniversary of the funeral ceremony attending the burial. A very long procession was a feature of the demonstration, the mayor of Dublin, the members of the corporation of Dublin and all of the Parnellite members of the house of commons taking part. Hundreds of wreaths were laid upon the grave. Parnell's mother, Mrs. Dolla Stewart Parnell, with her daughter, Mrs. Dickinson, and her grandson, Mr. McDermott, joined in the procession.

ADVICE TO MINERS.

Poor Consolation For the Men In Ohio.

REDUCTION OF WAGES ADVISED.

Hereafter They Must Work For Forty-Five Cents Per Ton Instead of Sixty-One Cent as They Have Heretofore Been Getting. A Circular Issued by the Officers of the Mine Workers Organization.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—President Phil. Penna and Secretary W. C. Pearce of the United Mine Workers of America, have issued a circular to miners of Ohio advising them to vote in favor of a reduction from 61 to 45 cents, as asked by the operators.

The circular says the miners of the Pittsburgh district are endeavoring to stamp out nonunion labor by the method of the enemy, that of competition, that Ohio miners ought to undergo the sacrifice of a reduction proportionate to that their Pennsylvania neighbors are bearing; that the coal and the facilities for mining it in the Pittsburgh district are far superior to those of Ohio, and that under the circumstances Ohio operators can not compete profitably with the Pennsylvania operators under a higher wage scale in Ohio than will maintain a differential of 9 cents less in this state; that in view of all the circumstances the only sensible action for the Ohio miners to take is to vote to accept the proposed reduction to 45 cents, and thus pave the way to an eventual restoration of the 55-cent rate in Ohio.

The officers say they are sensible of the fact that their recommendations may bring upon them the wrath of many miners, but believing that they are advising what is right, they are willing to await the final result, which can not be other than a demonstration of the wisdom of their action.

HUNTER TREED BY A BEAR.

He Is Held a Prisoner For Forty-Eight Hours.

LYNN, Mass., Oct. 12.—Eugene Newhall of this city met with an adventure recently which he does not care to have repeated. Mr. Newhall is one of the oldest and most experienced motormen on the Lynn and Boston Green line railroad, but when he was the occupant of a lone pine tree in the state of Maine, with a monster bear at his foot, his experience counted for naught, for he was compelled to remain in his retreat 48 hours without food or relief.

A few days ago, while hunting in the Rangely lake region he encountered a big black bear that put him to flight. He climbed a tree, dropping gun and cartridges. He sat there closely guarded all the afternoon and all night, until, guided by his calls, two companions found him and shot the bear. Newhall was so exhausted he had to be carried to camp.

BRAVE DEATH FOR GOLD.

Cleveland Money Back of Expedition to Terra del Fuego.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—A party of explorers sailed Saturday from New York to the barren island of Terra del Fuego, in search for gold, which is said to impregnate the sandy beach of the southern isle. The expedition is in charge of its organizer, Moses G. Ransom of the firm of C. S. Ransom & Company of 6 West Fifteenth street, and is regarded by Mr. Ransom as a practical business venture.

It is backed by capitalists of this city and of Cleveland, where Mr. Ransom lives. Kirk Gardner, son of ex-Mayor Gardner, and Douglas Perkins, Jr., of Cleveland go along for the adventure. The ship is supplied with dredging machinery, and the sail to the island will consume about 60 days. Terra del Fuego is inhabited by savages.

HAD THEIR OWN WAY.

The Doors of a Lecture Room Broken Down That Mrs. Gougar Might Speak.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—A lively row occurred at the People's institute in West Van Buren street yesterday, when a party of men broke down the doors of the lecture room, that Mrs. Helen M. Gougar might address an audience on the silver question.

Mrs. Gougar's lecture had been advertised and several hundred people had assembled to hear her, but the trustees of the West Side Christian church, who controlled the hall, refused to deliver the keys until the crowd grew impatient and burst in the doors. Mrs. Gougar's address was uninterrupted.

CATTLE KING MURDERED.

His Slayer Captured and Lodged in Jail and a Speedy Trial Promised.

ARDMORE, I. T., Oct. 12.—Wyatt Williams, a former cattle king, well known in Chicago, St. Louis and the west, was murdered on Main street at midnight Saturday night by Bud Watkins, a half blood Indian, aged 24 years. The murderer was captured after a sensational chase and lodged in jail here.

There is great excitement but a speedy trial is promised, and lynching is not likely. Watkins says he shot in self defense. This assertion, however, is denied by half a dozen witnesses. Williams was once among the largest and wealthiest stockmen in Texas.

Between buying an excursion ticket to Canton and losing their jobs, a good many men are buying tickets who will vote for Bryan when they get inside the election booth.

CROP OUTLOOK IS NOT GOOD.

Cotton Is Reported Short and Wheat Is Both Short and Poor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The returns to the statistical division of the department of agriculture for October make cotton show a decline of 3.5 points from September, which was 64.2 per cent, against 60.7 for the present month.

In some sections the crop has been injured by worms, rust, frost and heavy rains the last of September. There will be a very small yield from the top crop, and the reports say the crop will all be gathered by Nov. 1.

The general condition of the corn crop is 90.5 per cent, against 91 for the month of September. The returns of yield per acre of all wheat indicate a production of 11.9 bushels, which is .6 of a bushel less than the preliminary estimate for 1895.

The indicated quality for the country at large is 84.4 per cent against 85.7 last year.

The wheat crop is generally short in quantity and poor in quality, owing to unfavorable weather, drought at seeding time, deficiency of snow protection and excessive rains after harvest, producing scanty growth, shriveled grains and rust. The worst is in the great region from Ohio to Kansas and adjoining states.

The preliminary estimate of the yield of oats is 24.3 bushels per acre, against 29.6 a year ago; quality 74.9, ranging from 55 in Kansas to 104 in Montana.

BEAT HIS WIFE TO DEATH.

Terrible Tragedy Enacted in a Kentucky Cornfield.

PINEVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—William Baker, while out on the farm with his wife, became enraged, and in his mad fury beat his wife's head into a jelly. The circumstances of the murder are as follows:

Mr. Baker and his wife arose early Saturday morning and concluded to go to their cornfield to gather beans. While on their journey they had some harsh words, which passed off and were followed by good-natured converse. They proceeded until they reached the field, which was about 400 yards from the house, when the woman saw her husband gather up two rocks, and she asked him what this meant.

He told her he had been in trouble, and wanted to end his existence, and before doing so he wanted to kill her, and at this moment he threw one rock, which struck her just above the left eye and felled her to the ground.

He dashed the other stone upon her and crushed her face and skull in. After seeing what he had done he proceeded to carry her to her home. She lingered long enough to tell the story of the tragedy and then died.

The husband is in jail and will be tried for his crime at the present term of the court. There seems to be no doubt as to the man's insanity, and he will be thoroughly examined by expert physicians here.

KILLED THREE DIFFERENT WAYS.

A Grand Jury May Have Overstepped Their Duty in This Case.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 12.—According to the report of the grand jury in the case of Newton Dill, who was found with the entire top of his head crushed off, Dill was killed three times. The indictment returned charges Michael Heimlich and Mrs. Alwila Dill, wife of the dead man, with murder in the first degree. In one place it finds that Dill was killed with a club. In another it says he was killed with a shotgun, and in another it declares that he was killed with a pistol.

Mr. Dell Saviers, attorney for Heimlich, in view of the incongruities in the indictment, has filed a demurrer to it and the case will come up on the demurrer. There is little doubt that the indictment will be invalidated, but Mrs. Dill and Heimlich in such an event will be immediately rearrested. Prosecutor Joseph Dyer drew up the indictment.

SHOT THROUGH THE KEYHOLE.

Fatal Duel in Alabama With a Door Between the Fighters.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 12.—At Warrior Robert Taylor shot and fatally wounded Walton Lane. Both men were miners and neighbors. For months the men were not on speaking terms. About two weeks ago Lane went to Taylor and made up.

Saturday night Lane went to Taylor's house and rapped on the front door. Taylor ordered him to leave the place, and, it is said, fired an old musket through the door, but only made a hole in the wood. Taylor got a pistol and fired through the keyhole. Two shots struck Lane, one in the side of the body, fatally wounding him.

"JIM" AND "BUD,"

Two Brothers, Shot by a Kentucky Town Marshal.

GLASGOW, Ky., Oct. 12.—Jim and Bud Pedigo were shot by the town marshal here Saturday evening at 5 o'clock. The shooting grew out of an attempt of Marshal Collins to arrest Jim Pedigo. Pedigo resisted and drew a knife, when the marshal shot him in the side.

Pedigo fell in the street, and Bud Pedigo, a brother, ran up and Collins fired two shots at him, one taking effect in his right wrist. It is thought that Jim Pedigo's wound is fatal. A large crowd was in town, and great excitement prevailed.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—An Athens dispatch to The Times says that the governor of Mitylene has discovered a plot of Turkish students to bring about a general massacre of Christians and that four of the leaders have been arrested.

EASTERN COAST WIND

A Severe Hurricane Proving All Along the Atlantic.

SEVERAL VESSELS WRECKED.

One Schooner Goes Down and Three of a Crew of Eight Drowned—Vessels Warned in Time in the Vicinity of Boston—Reports From All Along the New Jersey Coast.

LEWES, Del., Oct. 12.—A severe northeasterly gale is raging all along the Atlantic coast, accompanied by rain. Yesterday morning the American schooner Luther A. Roby, from Schuerville, Nova Scotia, for Philadelphia, with a cargo of plaster, struck near the point of Cape Henlopen. The force of the sea was so great that the vessel pounded to pieces on the sands before the lifesaving men could get a line to her. Three of the crew lost their lives and five were rescued after an awful experience with the elements.

One of the killed lost his life by being struck by the mainmast when it fell.

The survivors are Captain W. B. Maloney of Boston, Mate George A. Hopkins, Fred Olson, Alex. Mohan and Edgar Lewes. They are being cared for by the crew of the lifesaving station.

The bodies of those lost have not yet been recovered.

Captain Maloney and the four members of his crew who were rescued with him were taken out of the sea after they had given up all hope of reaching shore alive. When the schooner went to pieces the five men managed to get hold of the deckhouse. On this frail raft they were buffeted about at the mercy of the enormously high seas until they were seen by the lifesavers. A rope was thrown to them and the five men, then nearly exhausted, were hauled through the roaring surf to a place of safety. A watch is being kept for the bodies of the three men who lost their lives.

Forty vessels are anchored inside the Delaware breakwater. Some of them are dragging dangerously near the bar, but there is every prospect that unless the storm abates there will be other disasters to shipping in addition to the loss of the schooner Roby.

The outward bound bark Alice lost one anchor and was dragging in a helpless condition when the tugs Pioneer and Hughes went to her rescue and towed her to a place of safety.

FULLY WARNED.

But One Disaster Reported From the Vicinity of Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—The advancing West India hurricane made itself evident about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, or about 12 hours after the hurricane signal was hoisted. The wind shifted to the northeast and since that time has increased constantly in force, attaining the highest velocity about 8 o'clock last night, when it blew 34 miles an hour. Along the southern New England coast it is raining heavily.

As usual, Block Island reported the greatest wind velocity, 68 miles an hour, while Nantucket was not far behind, with 52 miles. Both places reported the wind increasing.

With the exception of the wreck of the Alsatian at Baker's island, off Salem harbor, no other disasters have yet been reported.

Along the Jersey Coast.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Although the wind blew at a hurricane rate yesterday afternoon and last night along the New Jersey coast very little damage has been reported so far. Throughout the country districts of New Jersey nothing more than telegraph poles and trees are reported down. Accompanying the windstorm was a heavy rain, which in many parts fell in torrents for hours.

At Asbury Park and Long Branch most of the damage was done by the great waves which were dashed up along the piers and beaches, but the damage was not heavy.

At Sandy Hook the gale was experienced at its worst. It blew great guns all day and continued throughout the night.

At Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 12.—A severe northeast storm began to rage along the coast about 5 o'clock yesterday and has continued with unabated fury. The wind blew steadily about 55 miles an hour. The government life crew reports no shipping disasters along the coast. In this city the storm did considerable damage.

SAVED BY HIS MULE.

A Kentucky Farmer Held Up by Footpads but Not Robbed.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Oct. 12.—Henry Moore, a Schultz Creek (Ky.) farmer, while returning home from a political meeting late at night, was stopped by footpads at Morton Hill. Moore was unarmed, and was riding a mule. When one of the highwaymen caught the mule near the bit the animal seized his arm.

The second robber then struck the mule, which whirled around and kicked him over an embankment. The plunging animal threw off Moore, who fell upon the first robber, and both rolled down the embankment. The mule's attack frightened the thieves, who fled. Moore succeeded in recapturing the animal and rode home without further interference. The robber who was bitten must have been badly injured.

The farmers of the country are receiving and consequently spending $800,000,000 less per year than they were fifteen years ago. This means at least a loss of 2,000,000 days' work per year to the American mechanics.—Exchange.

MARK HANNA has rented all the public halls in Cleveland, hoping to prevent the free silver people from holding meetings, says the Portsmouth Times. That won't save McKinley.

The Republicans are actually scared up over Ohio, and well they may be. The Commercial Tribune admits that the first poll of the State showed a majority for Bryan. McKinley and Hanna have to fight for Ohio, and then may not get it.

Here's something from the Columbus (O.) Press that is to the point: "When a farmer hitches up his team and hauls fifty bushels of wheat to a warehouse ten miles and at the end of the day reaches home with $5 in his pocket for a load that cost him $8, he is not likely to keep the neighborhood awake that night shouting for 'McKinley and sound money.'"

REPUBLICANS have got "money to throw away" in this campaign. This is becoming more apparent as the election draws near. All the trusts and big corporations are backing McKinley and if money will win he will be the next President. But when it comes to bribing voters, the men will likely stick the money in their pockets and vote as they please. That's the right way.

Even McKinley's relatives are going back on him. Wm. B. Albro, a prominent farmer of New York, says he can't support his uncle. He says:

"I am sorry to say that I can not vote or work for McKinley's election. I have just returned from Nebraska, where I lived for the past fifteen years, and where I had the pleasure of the acquaintance of Mr. Bryan. I believe that he is perfectly honest in his work and I know that he is a gentleman and a Christian. It is for the interest of the farmer and all people who till the soil to vote for Bryan and Sewall."

STABILITY UNDER FREE COINAGE.
 Prior to the discovery of gold in 1848 the bulk of the world's money was silver. In 1848 the total gold in coinage in the world was only 39,000,000 ounces, of silver 1,470,000,000, or 37 to 1. Yet there was absolute parity at 15 to 1—the highest coinage ratio—the world over. If any country coined lower, its silver was at a premium. In 1860 the gold in coinage had reached 85,000,000 ounces, a drop to 21 to 1, with absolute parity. In 1870 it was 16 to 1, with absolute parity, and in 1883 only 12 to 1, the gold in coinage being 169,000,000 ounces and the silver 2,086,000,000 (United States mint estimate).

A BROTHER

Of President Garfield Opposes "the English" Party and Its Agent, Mark Hanna.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., October 9.—The following letter will be published here to-morrow morning, the writer being a brother of the late President James A. Garfield:

JANESVILLE, MICH., October 9, 1896.
 To Hon. E. C. Watkins, Chairman Union Silver State Central Committee—Dear Sir: I am diametrically opposed to allowing England or any European power, or any other power to be consulted or to dictate in any way our financial policy. I am in favor of having all the gold and all the silver produced in this country used equally as money and treated alike at our mints. I am in favor of capital, but am opposed to having capitalists hoarding their money in a National bank vault or investing it in Government bonds. I want capital put where it will do work. I was proud to be a Republican when republican principles were voiced by Abraham Lincoln, President Grant, John A. Logan and James A. Garfield, but I am opposed to having the principles of the Republican party voiced by the banker bondholders of Lombard and Wall streets, through their agent, Mark Hanna. I am an American, hence I am opposed to consulting any other power in our American policy, especially in finances.

THOMAS GARFIELD.

McKINLEY'S RECORD.

He Has Voted For Free Coinage and Can't Complain Now if Other Republicans Do Likewise.

[Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.

Every Republican in the United States who feels that he ought to vote for silver has been commissioned to do so and the commission is issued by no less person than William McKinley, Republican candidate for the Presidency. We publish in another part of this issue of the News-Democrat his letter to Hon. E. S. Perkins in which he boasts of his votes for silver and States that his support of economic questions is a matter of conviction. This, of itself, is sufficient warrant for silver Republicans to stand by their convictions. In order that there may be no mistake as to McKinley's votes in favor of silver we give, herewith, his votes in Congress upon this subject:

1. McKinley voted on November 5, 1877, for Bland's free coinage bill.
2. McKinley voted on January 28, 1878, for a resolution declaring that all the Government bonds issued under the resumption act were payable, principal and interest, at the option of the Government, in silver dollars.
3. The Bland bill having come back to the House from the Senate with amendments providing for the coinage of not less than $2,000,000 nor more than $4,000,000 of silver per month, Abram S. Hewitt moved to lay the whole thing on the table. On February 21, 1878, McKinley voted no.
4. President Hayes having vetoed this bill, McKinley voted on February 28, 1873, to pass it over the Ohio Republican President's veto.
5. One of Bland's free coinage bills having been reported adversely in 1886, there was offered a substitute providing that the purchase and coinage of silver bullion should be suspended on July 1, 1889, (three years later,) unless concurrent action concerning silver should be taken by European nations and the United States before that date. McKinley voted with Bland, against this substitute, on April 8, 1886.
6. In 1893, on August 28, the House voted upon the question whether the Sherman silver purchase act should be repealed. McKinley was not a member. In the following September, however, when the Senate was hesitating and it was by no means certain that it would be induced to concur with the House in repealing the act, McKinley made a public address in which he urged that "the silver product of the country should not be discriminated against." And on September 27, 1894, almost one year after the repeal, McKinley, in another public address, denounced those who had voted to "strike down the Sherman law," saying that they "struck silver down and gave it the severest blow it ever had." For the repeal twenty-six Republican Senators and 105 Republican Representatives had voted.

OVER FIFTY

Business Men For Bryan To One For McKinley.

TOLEDO, Ohio, October 5.—An eloquent reply to the statement that business men generally are for McKinley has been made by means of a recent mail ballot. J. W. Gunnels, of this city, publisher of Gunnels' Monthly, recently sent out 10,000 return postal cards. On them was the request that the recipients would simply give their preferences for President, without going into the issues involved.

These cards were sent to business houses with which Mr. Gunnels had dealings, advertising agencies and to many subscribers for the monthly. Mr. Gunnels had received 8,395 replies to date. Eight thousand three hundred and thirty-four are for Bryan and only 161 for McKinley.

The Political Pot Boiling in the "Kingdom of Lewis" as it Has Not Boiled Since 1860.

VANCEBURG, Ky., Oct. 9, '96.

The political pot is boiling in Lewis as it has not boiled since 1860. Free silver Democrats and gold bug Republicans confront each other, figuratively speaking, with clinched fists and murderous eyes. Under the new and exciting conditions new friendships in many instances have been formed and old time friendship broken. In no county, probably, in the State, is there so much earnest, zealous, determined, desperate effort being put forth on both sides. The free silver men, armed only with the righteousness of their cause, and their patriotic devotion to principles they consider vital to the perpetuity of the Republic, must continually battle under the eyes and guns of the shrewdest, fiercest Republican boss known to Eastern Kentucky politics—a man of wealth, and one who does not hesitate to use it to accomplish any scheme on which his heart may be set. The Democratic leaders are all very poor men, and love to compensate in courage, enthusiasm and constant industry for what they lack in "dilly dilly." Tails being the Gibraltar of Republicanism,—the capital of the Republican kingdom—every effort will be made, every resource will be employed, every trick will be resorted to, every nerve will be strained to hold the kingdom intact against the assaults of the patriots of free silver. Though Judge Pugh's defeat for Congress may not surprise them, though Bryan's victory may be conceded, still to cut down their majority in the Kingdom of Lewis, would be a humiliation that would justify any means to prevent.

Prof. J. S. Mavity and J. Noel Johnson, free silverites, spoke at Indian Creek a few nights ago. At the conclusion of the oratory, men turned over benches to get forward to enroll their names. A club of 108 was formed, many Republicans joining.

The fact is speakers are out beating the brush all the time. If brands are not perpetrated at the polls (looked for) the Kingdom of Lewis will come near being destroyed at the coming election by the insurgent patriots of free silver.

Mr. J. S. Wood, formerly of this city, but now a Cashier of a bank in Kansas City, is here, accompanied by his bride, who was Miss Dorothea Topping, of Ottawa, Kansas.

Hon. Thomas Hargis, of Louisville, will address the citizens of Lewis at Vanceburg at an early date. "Tom" has always been a great favorite in Lewis, and the announcement will call out a big crowd.

Rev. J. Ackman, of the M. E. Church, has moved here with his family from California, Ky., to assume his duties as pastor in place of Rev. L. P. Hanks, who goes to Milldale, Ky.

Rev. M. V. Yeaman, of the Presbyterian Church, will attend the Synod of that church to be held at Bowling Green next week. RANDOLPH.

Loose clothes and downy cushions bring only a negative sort of comfort to the woman who is suffering with some disease or derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Some clothes and some positions make the pain and the discomfort seem less. Perhaps the nerves are almost affected and this in turn disturbs the digestion. Nothing will ever completely relieve but a radical cure. The start of so-called "female complaints" may be a very slight thing indeed. It may be that the beginning some small hygienic measures would stop the trouble. Certainly at this time, a little bit of the right medicine would stop it. When the trouble becomes worse, it is harder to cure, but still it can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will positively cure any trouble of this character. It may be absolutely relied upon. It affords lasting relief to a woman whose natural modesty has kept her from consulting a physician.

Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

Dayton, Ohio, and Return $3.45.

On October 13th and 14th the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets, Maysville to Dayton, Ohio, at one fare, $3.45. Return limit October 17th.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Offerings Small Last Week—Market More Active, But No Change in Prices.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

The small offerings of tobacco the past week have made the buyers watch the sales closer, and caused some competition on nearly all grades offered, and, while we see no particular change in prices, the market was more active. The receipts are small for this season of the year, and, with a decrease in stocks in our market, we expect a more active market until the new comes into competition, and then the old crop will be discarded as soon as the manufacturers can get a full supply of the new crop.

The offerings of the best grades were more liberal. Prices were about the same, and there were very few rejections. There was a good demand for sweet fillers of the medium grades, while those most showing any defects were neglected. The low grades and nondescripts were taken at full prices of the previous week, as the speculative demand is forcing the manufacturers to pay full prices, especially for color goods.

The reports from the country are favorable, and the stripping has commenced in good earnest, and, if prices will justify, we expect the shipments to begin much earlier than usual this year. Some samples received in the market show fine fiber and good color, and no doubt the crop will be an excellent one for manufacturing purposes.

THOMAS AND PUGH

Will Meet at Court House Wednesday Afternoon in a Joint Debate.

B. W. Blair, of Cincinnati, O., to Speak That Night, and Judge Tarvin Friday Night—The Rectorville Club.

Col. W. LaRue Thomas and Judge Pugh, candidates for Congress in this district, will meet in a joint debate at the court house, this city, next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The discussion will attract an immense crowd, as all are anxious to hear them. The public invited.

Mr. B. W. Blair, a member of the firm of Blair Bros., big brick manufacturers of Cincinnati, will speak at the court house, this city, next Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Blair has been a life-long Republican, but he believes in the free silver, and is an ardent advocate of Bryan and Sewall. Let everybody, and especially the business men, hear him.

Mr. C. Burgess Taylor will speak at Rectorville Wednesday, October 14th, at 7 p. m.

Hon. James P. Tarvin, of Covington, a Democratic nominee for elector at large, will speak at Mayslick Friday, October 16th, at 2 p. m. and at the court house, this city, that night at 7:30 o'clock. He is an eloquent orator and all should hear him.

Congressman Williams, of Mississippi, was greeted by a crowded house at the court house Saturday night, and made a strong speech for Bryan and free coinage.

Mr. Allan D. Cole spoke at Rectorville Saturday night, and had a crowded house. He was given an enthusiastic reception and at the close of his speech a Bryan club was organized, with "Squire M. D. Farrow President and Mr. Lamhden Cooper, Secretary. Twenty-six members were enrolled, and many more names will be added at the next meeting, Wednesday night, October 14th. The Republicans tried recently to organize a club at Rectorville but failed.

DEMOCRATIC DAY,

And There Was a Big Crowd at the Germantown Fair—List of the Successful Exhibitors.

The Germantown fair closed Saturday. It was Democratic Day, and the largest crowd of the week was present. The attendance was placed at between 2,500 and 3,000. Ex-Governor McCreary, of Richmond, Congressman John S. Williams, of Yazoo City, Miss., and Hon. Theo. Hallam, of Covington, spoke during the day, and were given an enthusiastic reception. They delivered some telling arguments in favor of Bryan and the people's cause that he represents. All in all, it was a good day for Democracy. Col. W. LaRue Thomas, nominee for Congress, was present, and put in a good day's work shaking hands with his many friends and mingling with the people. He was greeted warmly on every hand.

Mrs. ALICE M. SULLIVAN, aged fifty years, wife of Mr. George Sullivan, died Sunday, October 11th, at the home of her sister Mrs. Moses Jones, in the West End, of cancer of the stomach. The funeral will occur to-morrow at 2 p. m., at the residence, with services by Rev. S. D. Dutcher. [Greenup papers please copy.]

Mrs. BELLE ALEXANDER died early Sunday morning at the home of her niece, Mrs. W. R. Smith, of East Second street, after a lingering illness, aged fifty-three years. Her husband, John Alexander, died some years ago. One son survives. The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

The morning after the Tammany-Bryan meeting in New York a prominent business man of the city walked into the Wigwam and handing the chief officer of the society $1,000 said: "If there is any doubt as to how I shall vote, this settles it. The Bryan meeting of last night did it."

The Enquirer says a sensational suit was filed Saturday at Covington by Chas. H. Granger against Edgar S. Davis for $5,000 as damages for the alienation of his wife's affections. Granger also filed suit against his wife, for divorce, charging her with a violation of the marriage contract. The defendant in the first suit is a C. and O. engineer.

SENATOR LINDSAY, a member of the McKinley Aid Society, met with a "frost" at Covington Saturday night, where he spoke at Oddfellows' Hall. The hall seats only 400, and not half the seats were occupied when Mr. Lindsay made his appearance on the stage, while at no time during the evening was the hall over two thirds filled. It was the smallest crowd that has assembled in that place since the campaign opened, a fact that was freely commented on, the more on account of Senator Lindsay being the biggest gun the bolters will secure there during the campaign.

The funeral of the late John Andrew Coburn, whose death was mentioned Saturday, occurred Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of his sister, Mrs. John H. Richeson, of West Third street, with services by Rev. W. O. Cochrane. The remains were interred in the Maysville cemetery. As stated Saturday, deceased, in earlier years, was a prominent merchant of this city. His faults were few, and were more against himself than his fellowman. No man of a kinder heart and more accommodating nature ever graced our citizenship, nor a more honorable man in his dealings with his fellows,—equitable and conscientious in all his transactions.

WON THE LAST GAME,

And Downed the Great and Only Wiley Davis. Hit the Umpire and Almost Caused a Riot.

The Maysvilles closed the season at Knoxville Saturday, defeating the Tennesseans in a close and exciting game. Score 6 to 5. Hits, eight on each side; errors five each side.

The boys are rejoicing over the victory all the more because "the great and only" Wiley Davis was in the box against them. Newton pitched a great game for the Kentuckians.

The game almost broke up in a riot, says a special. The trouble arose in the fourth inning. Schmidt, of the Knoxville team, was at the bat. He was struck by a foul tip, the ball hit his leg and rolled into the diamond. Umpire Denny called the ball in play and the batter was called out at first. This angered Schmidt, and walking up to the umpire he slapped him in the face. Denny did not resent the blow, and Schmidt was caught by Hall, of the Maysville team, before he could strike again. Schmidt was ruled off the diamond after this, and when the game was over he apologized to the umpire. The Maysvilles returned home Sunday morning.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at J. James Wood's drug store.

MOLLOY-MULLIGAN NUPTIALS.

[Lexington Herald.]

October did its beautiful best for the bride of yesterday. As early as was the hour of the mass at which was solemnized the marriage of Dr. Patrick Henry Molloy and Miss Alice Mulligan, the unclouded sun was there to smile upon them, and among the regular congregation of St. Paul's Church was a large sprinkling of friends outside of the pale of that communion.

The sacrament of marriage in the Roman Catholic Church is, like all of its majestic ritual, a solemn and beautiful ceremony. The morning light streamed in colored shafts across the church through the stained glass windows, bathing some fair devotee's head, here and there, in warm rose or tints of pallid green or amber. The high altar was lighted save by the three candles of the mass, and there was no music, the service being a low mass.

A few minutes after 8 o'clock the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom entered the church, Judge and Mrs. Mulligan, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Mulligan, Mrs. W. P. Morgan, Miss Mollie Mulligan, Dr. John Molloy, Mr. Willoughby Williams, little Miss Mulligan and Master Dennis Mulligan.

Dr. Molloy and Miss Mulligan followed at a little interval. The bride looked charmingly pretty in a quaint and graceful gown of green cloth, finished with a bolero jacket of velvet and black and white lace. Her hat matched the tone of the gown, and was trimmed in black and white lace with bunches of pink roses.

The bride and groom stood together in the central aisle facing the high altar until the entrance of Father Barry and his acolyte, after which they ascended the chancel and altar steps and stood immediately before the sanctuary during the performance of the marriage ceremony. Father Barry wore the white and gold vestments of a feast day in the church, and the altar cloth hung across the face of the altar in a broad border, also of white and gold.

At the conclusion of the marriage ceremony Dr. Molloy and his bride descended to the chancel where two priedieux had been placed for them to the right and 1 ft of the altar just within the communion rail, where they knelt during the celebration of the mass. Protestants and Catholics alike participated in the services so far—on the part of the former—as devotion of attitude could follow an unfamiliar service. When all was over and the crowd poured out into the brightness of the lovely day, a number of friends congratulated the happy pair and shook hands with them through the carriage door.

"Don't You Think."

Mr. Thomas A. Davis had an unusually large and attentive audience at Mayslick Saturday afternoon. When Hon. W. LaRue Thomas, candidate for Congress, spoke there he had sixty-two in his audience. Mr. Davis had nearly 100; and this in the face of a neighborhood fair and an auction sale in the town.—Public Ledger.

From reading his paper, the Public Ledger, one would think that the Republican party had made a great mistake in not nominating Thomas A. Davis for Congress. They need some one to keep their banner from trailing in the dust. If we were Mr. Davis we would let somebody else do the blowing. We would like to buy him for what he is really worth—in free silver—and sell him for what he thinks he is worth—in free silver. My, we would have a cart load of money.—Dover News.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

An Alabama Posse Kills a Negro Who Confessed to Committing Murder.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 12.—Wednesday night Randolph Falls, a farmer, living at Toadvine, while returning home from the city after selling a load of cotton, was killed by two negroes. The negroes were picked up by Falls a few miles from the city. When about 25 miles from town night overtook them and they camped out. During the night the negroes split Falls' head open with an ax after which they robbed him of all but $66, which was in an inside pocket.

A posse followed the trail of the murderers about 10 miles and overtook a strange negro. They carried him back to near the spot where the murder was committed. He confessed, and while he was praying for mercy the posse shot him. His body was left in the road.

A report has reached this city that the second negro was caught last night and shot.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
